

PRODUCERS FORUM™
The BUYER to AGENT ADVANTAGE™

HOW IT WORKS:

Producers Forum helps your agent find you the perfect property. On the site, your agent posts your criteria. Producers' Forum then does its magic...

Your agent is notified of all "off-market" and upcoming properties that are a possible match to your criteria. Your agent will contact you after they have fully investigated the suitability of the property based on the information you have shared with them. Daily notifications alert your agent to new properties available only on the Forum.

Your personal information remains confidential and with your agent. Only your BUYING CRITERIA is shared.

GRAB THE BUYERS ADVANTAGE™

When your agent places your home-buying needs on the Forum, they'll have access to the latest information on:

- Upcoming properties matching your criteria
- "Off-market" properties that are right for you
- Additional data that increases your market insight

WHAT YOU DO:

1 SHARE your needs with a member agent.

2 COMMIT to working with a member agent. Their professional reputation is at stake on your behalf. We recommend that you discuss signing a buyer/broker agreement with the member agent.

3 RECEIVE the newest information from your agent regarding "off-market" properties that match your criteria.
